

GYURI SPIES

SOUND ENGINEER

°1957

Gyuri Spies is a composer, arranger, songwriter and sound engineer. He is active in the pop and jazz fields as well as in film and tv-music.

He wrote many compositions in the jazz idiom, including for the BRT Jazzorkest and many studio productions. He is also an accomplished producer and sound engineer.

He works on a regular basis with the Brussels Jazz Orchestra, for which he also writes arrangements (for silent movie projects, etc...). He is the sound engineer at BJO's concerts and sometimes in the recording studio.

He was one of the 11 arrangers on the album "Changing Faces" (released in 2007), of singer David Linx with the Brussels Jazz Orchestra.

He also wrote music and arrangements for theatre (the Nederlands Theater in Ghent a.o.) and for pop artists such as Natalia, The Scabs, The Radios, Hooverphonic, Lady Linn etc... Spies is an accomplished composer of (non) commercial tunes and jingles. He wrote the film score for several (Dutch- movies (such as Het Paard van Sinterklaas, Suske & Wiske).

He co-wrote in 1987 for singer Liliane Saint-Pierre the song "Soldiers of Love", which represented Belgium in the Eurovision song contest.

In 1992 Gyuri Spies won the SABAM Award for best jazz composition.

Since 1996 he teaches Arrangement and Recording Technique at the Conservatory of Ghent.

